We offer you a best opportunity to study Japanese in Japan, and to experience local Japanese' daily life.

<<Weekly Course>>

The classes are strongly focused on conversation. The most important point when learning a language is to know how to talk with local people. You can improve your Japanese in one week!

<<Homestay>>

Homestay is a great way to learn about Japan and its people. By spending time with a Japanese family during your stay, you can experience much more things that you would never know if you stay in a hotel.
